MANITOWOC.

The judicial seat of Manitowoc county, has a picturesque and commercial location seldom combined or excelled. Located in a rich farming section, on the shore of Lake Michigan, at the crossing of the C. & N. W. Ry, over the Manitowoc river. It has a harbor a mile in length, improved and lengthened by two parallel piers 250 feet apart and 2,470 feet long, built by the United States government at a cost of $375,000. With such a harbor, open through the year, vessel trade with the ports to the south is never interrupted, and during the winter season Manitowoc is recognized as one of the best ship yard cities on Lake Michigan. Incorporated as a city in 1870, it has had a steady growth, and now contains 10,000 inhabitants. The industries of the city are varied and extensive, but the possibilities are far from being reached. The city contains a ship yard, an excellent dry dock and a floating dock, 3 breweries, 10 cigar factories, extensive iron works, several wagon factories, a coal dock with a capacity of 100,000 tons, an edge tool manufacturing company, 1 large paper and 1 cigar box factory, a flouring mill, 4 tanneries, the Manitowoc Seating Co. (a large establishment manufacturing school, church and office furniture, and employing 250 hands), a glue factory, vinegar works, 3 planing mills, 6 brick yards, 2 hay presses, etc. There are 2 banks and 3 first-class hotels, while 2 high schools, 2 ward schools and several sectarian schools, give the city a well marked reputation in educational matters. The various religious denominations are represented by 13 churches. The city also contains the spacious county insane asylum and the Polish Orphan Asylum, which cost $15,000. Five newspapers—English and German—are published. The shipments constitute large quantities of leather, flour, grain, cheese, etc. Stages daily to Kiel and intermediate points; to Howard and intermediate points on Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays; to Rosecrans and intermediate points, on Tuesdays and Fridays. Telephone connections. Tel., W. U. Exp., Am., Henry Vits, postmaster.
